HOME JOTTINGS.

Two drivers of the coaches between here and Somerset, report travel very light.

REV. T. A. BRACKEN will preach in the Presbyterian church here, next Sunday.

HON. M. J. BURMAN, our able Representative in Congress, was in town today.

Circuit court will begin here next Monday. A large crowd will be in attendance.

REV. R. M. CHESNUT will preach at the Baptist church Sunday morning and night.

REV. G. O. BARNES will preach in the Court House next Sunday evening, at 8 o'clock.

W. C. OWENS, of the Somerset Reporter, called on us a few days since en route to Louisville.

The rockaway presented to Rev. O. O. Barnes by a few of his warm personal friends and admirers, is a most beautiful and serviceable vehicle.

DEED.—On Wednesday last, at his father's, in Boyle county, J. Metcalf Bright, aged 7 years. The funeral services will be held at the residence of Mrs. Elizabeth Bright, to day, at 10 o'clock.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Otho Owens and his handsome wife, Miss Mollie Howe, of Richmond, Va., passed through town on Thursday last, en route to Somerset.

Our jail will be rid of several of its inmates during the coming circuit court, and the Sheriff will be called upon to make his usual semi-annual visit to the Capitol.

There is a school in an average for every four miles square in Lincoln county, and as many places of worship, where preaching is held at least half the time.

MISS MARY E. CHENEY, of Hardin, Miss., who has been on a short visit to the Misses Alcorn, left on Monday last for Louisville, where she intends spending the winter.

SWEET potatoes and pumpkins afford a fine dinner dish at this season of the year, and Danl. Manuel says he can furnish enough in season to supply the town, bring even in, Uncle Daniel.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Tom Miller and wife, of Marshall, Mo., are here on a visit to relatives. He reports fine crops in his State, of all kinds, yet times are quite dull, but the people hopeful.

The lame, the halt, and the blind, the poor, the rich and—most of all other sorts of folks, presented claims for allowance before the Court of Claims which met on Monday and closed on Wednesday.

SEVERAL iron bridges will be erected on the Knoxville & Richmond Branch railroad, in place of the wooden trestle which needs repairs or replacement. The material passed through on the cars recently.

The Corner of this county, J. M. Hatt, has held three inquests the present year, namely: one Dr. De Strain, one of a negro infant, and the other on Mr. Matt Boyd. The perquisites of his office are meagre.

TOMACON.—C. Cunningham, Tobaccoist, at Lancaster, Ky., wants you to patronize home manufacturers. He has the best raised and manufactured article, which he offers low to the trade. Send for a sample lot and try it once.

The Central Kentucky Medical Association meets next Wednesday, 20th, in Stanford at 10 o'clock A. M. The opening paper on "Hemiplegia," their causes and treatment, will be read by Dr. Hoffman, of Lancaster.

The party of gentlemen who left here on the 10th of this month for a deer hunting and fishing spree, returned on the 10th, and report no deer killed but splendid fishing as they caught a large number of fine salmon, bass and perch.

A MORE accommodating livery man can't be found than our friend Jim Ed. Brown—and his fast, gentle horses, for harness or saddle, and his clean, neat and easy riding vehicles—all at low prices, make his establishment a new place to call on.

NOTICE.—The "Old News" will meet at their hall in Stanford to-morrow evening at 7 o'clock. A full attendance is requested, as business of much importance will come before the society. Every member should attend, in order to learn something to his advantage.

Our physicians are that for the past six weeks they have been very busy waiting upon the afflicted, but now they have little to do. Only a few deaths have occurred and the mortality has been as little as in any year for the last decade. This favorable weather will bring all right again.

OUR friends of the Stanford and Winter goods is now open, and the display they make is very attractive. An inspection is invited to all, every thing they offer is of the best quality, and their prices such as to enable them to purchase goods as low as ever offered in any market.

As our Circuit Court is rapidly approaching, and the grand jury will soon be in session, we do not wonder that all of our dirt roads are being put in good repair. Some of them have been badly out of fix for some time, and it is well that something has stirred up the parties to a performance of their duty.

Our Palukki friends had spent $10,000 of the money they used in building their new temple of justice, in the erection of a safe prison, they could have had a court house good enough for any county in the State, and no further taxation would be required to build a jail. So said a citizen of Somerset to a Journal reporter the other day.

MARRIED.—Mr. G. A. Peyton and Miss Lizette Tevis were united in marriage on the 7th inst. Attendants—W. H. Murphy and Miss Alice Cash, Napoleon Tevis and Miss Tevis. They may live to celebrate their golden wedding; and may they be always as happy as our devil looked while eating the delicious cake sent by them to this office.

MR. ARCHIEB. SNOW, of our town, saw a large owl, of the "chicken eating breed," on the corner of a barn near the Court House last Monday morning, and, with his revolver shot the bird. Mr. Snow brought the bird down at the first shot, and on actual measurement he was five feet seven inches from "tip to tip." This is the largest owl that has been killed in this section for some years.

It seems strange that the old record books of our county of Lincoln should present such clear writing as they do. Here, in the county clerk's office, are records one hundred years old nearly, which were written only a few short years after Boone and his companions blazed a pathway across the trackless wilderness, which shows like a gleam of light through the darkness of ages. Yet the deeds and other "testaments" are as clear as though written yesterday. The paper upon which they are recorded is almost as thick and substantial as parchment, and the chirography is excellent. Their preservation has been complete. From present appearances they are good for centuries to come.

ONE hundred years ago, the grounds which now form Lincoln county, was an immense cane-brake, with cane at least twenty feet high. It was the home of the turkey, her, elk, and other wild animals. Not far from our suburbs, there is a buffalo trace over which (as an Iroquois informed by old residents, who gathered the furs from their forefathers) those animals passed from the hill part of this county in the springs and branches which flow into the site of Roub's Mill, look its name from this trace, and we are told that the old Presbyterian church here derived its name from the same, and it stood within 100 yards of the trace.

The colored people who have made settlements out in the country, instead of making them around town, have acted wisely. There is one on top of Hill's Gap, and one about two miles from town. At these points the colored people can procure wood almost for the cutting, while those who live about town can scarcely afford to buy enough to keep them from freezing in the winter. Those who live in the country act wisely.

Two prisoners passed through town last Saturday in charge of the Sheriff of Pulaski county, en route to the penitentiary for a period of two years. Two other prisoners were brought here by him and lodged in our jail for safe keeping, until the next term of the Pulaski circuit court, owing to the fact that the jail down there is but a little better than an ordinary house, as a prison. Pulaski county has purchased an iron cell, however, which will be placed in the old jail when finished.

A YOUNG couple, fresh from the mountains of East Tennessee, passed through our town on Wednesday last, on foot, destined for the Western Plains. They informed those who conversed with them that they had married on last Monday a week since, and they were satisfied they could do better in a country where corn grew higher than four feet, and produced more than two barrels to the acre. The young man said he knew the world was his living, and his better half said she was willing to help him get it.

LAKE, STOCK, AND CROP ITEMS.

LAKE stock trade improving, especially cattle.

THE fine stallion Allie West, which sold for $15,000 a few days since, has the epitaph in a mild form.

WE heard a citizen of a neighboring county say that he very much desired to buy a small farm of 50 or 60 acres of land in this county, near town. If any of our readers have such for sale, they would do well to advertise the fact in this paper.

THE greatest short horn sale that ever occurred in this country took place last Thursday in Clark county, Ky., near Winchester, by B. B. Groom. Seventy head of heifers and twenty bulls were sold. We will lay before our readers next week a statement of the result, written for us expressly by an intelligent stock farmer who was present.

FROM TOMACON.—Mr. W. J. Russell, one of our most enterprising farmers of the West End, showed us on Monday last some excellent samples of tobacco raised by him this year. They were of a bright yellow, so desirable among Tobaccoists for wrappers. Mr. Russell has ten acres of this tobacco that he says will fully come to the samples—if so he has a "Big Bonanza."

SEVERAL of our Hanging Fork farmers told us on Monday last that a great deal of the corn crop would remain uncut in several parts of the county, owing to the fact that farmers could not afford to pay for cutting it with corn at $1.25 to $1.50 per bushel, and that the fodder would scarcely pay for cutting. We have not heard of any corn being injured by the late severe frosts, and farmers say this is fine weather for the crop, as it hardens it ready for winter and for grinding.

A NUMBER of our readers have told us that their flocks, both chickens and turkeys, were not so healthy within the last two months. We have learned from our friends that a duck has never been known to have that disease. The aquatic habits of this fowl may account for its freedom from the complaint, and this may teach us a lesson. Water cleans them, and if we could keep our roosting places clean, our other fowls might escape. An old lady subscriber told us the other day that a little cock was mixed with meal and that fed to the fowls, it would prevent if not cure the cholera.

THE Courier-Journal reports sales at Lexington on October 10th, of short horns belonging to Messrs. Vanmeter and Ewers as follows: Fifty-three head brought $8,805, an average of only a little over $110 per head. The highest priced animals were Gen. 2nd, by Dixie Taylor, dam Gen. 2nd, by Fordham Duke, sold to Vanmeter at $410 Gen. 2nd by Dixie Duke of Adirondack dam to Dr. Sprague, $425; Queen of the Realm, by Star of the Realm, dam by Prince Christian, $350; Gen. 2nd, by Dixie Duke, dam by Dixie Duke, to S. Vanmeter, $350; Gen. 2nd, by Duke of Argyle, dam by Sexton, to Dr. Sprague, $280. For ty dollars was the lowest price brought.

The sale was poorly attended, and the prices obtained were quite moderate compared with the quality of the stock, as the Vanmeter herd is known to be among the best in Kentucky.

CUNNEY COURT DAY.—Considering the wet, rainy day, there was a good crowd in town last Monday, owing to the fact that it was the opening day of the Court of Claims. From the report of the auctioneers below, it will be seen what stock was on the market, and the prices obtained. Times are represented rather easier than for some months past, and a general good feeling prevailed among all classes, trades and professions. In the County Court but little business was docketed outside of administrators and guardian settlements. We noticed Mr. John Blair, County Clerk, at his old desk again, after a long absence, by reason of a partial stroke of paralysis. A pass away, private, was granted to James Robinson over the lands of Mr. Swanpe, after a spirited opposition upon the part of the latter. But for the existence of the statute which allows the execution of those passages under proper circumstances, many persons would be greatly discommoded. By 5 o'clock in the evening the crowd in town had left for their respective homes, not one being left to tell the tale that John Barclay-corn had been largely patronized.

CAPT. H. T. BUSH, auctioneer, reports a tolerably fair trade. About 250 cattle on the market, mostly young. Oxen feeding from $50 to $120 a pair; common feeding cattle sold from 3c to 3 1/2c; milk cows from $30 to $40; dry cows 3c to 4c per lb; broke mules sold from $75 to $120; 9 2-year old mules were withdrawn at $72 50 per head horses sold from $50 to $140.

CAPT. J. M. HODGINS reports about 150 cattle on the market, of mixed lots. Prices fair for those sold, and bidding spirited. The following was sold by him: 1 cow and calf $35 50; 4 heifers, $20 50 per head; 4 heifers, $18 40 per head. Several yokes of cattle from $40 to $105 per yoke. 8 calves, common, $10 per head. 3 calves, $14 per lb. 1 horse $40, 1 work mule $100, 3 calves, common, $11 90 per head. 5 heifers $17 10 per head. 1 steer $35. 1 buggy mare $135.

C. R. R. ITEMS.

MR. M. W. VENABLE, Resident Engineer, has been placed in charge of King's Mountain Tunnel.

CAPT. J. S. MONTAGUE, the nothing and idle Division Engineer on the road between Shelby City and Somerset, was in Stanford for the second time in the last ten months, on Thursday last, and made no call. Capt. Montague certainly sticks close to his work, the result of which is that his division is much further advanced than any on the line.

THE many friends of that obliging gentleman, Maj. C. E. Webster, will rejoice with us at his promotion to the staff of the Chief Engineer, with office at Cincinnati. Major Webster is an Engineer of remarkable skill and ability, as the energy with which he has pushed King's Mountain Tunnel attests, and the compliment that Mr. Lovett pays him in thus promoting him, is but a just tribute to a most deserving officer.

LINCOLN COUNTY NEWS.

Hustonsville.

WE are in receipt of liberal predictions of winter. The frosts of the last few nights are rapidly bringing down the leaves of the forests. Corn has made its escape, and is an unusually heavy crop. The work of sowing grain is going forward on every side. The few hogs—and they are very few—are becoming fat. Mule colts hang their necks limp and look disconsolate, as if they were aware of the fact that they are no longer a power in the land. Calves, on the contrary, which their tails in proud recognition of their paroxysmal importance.

THE merchants are busy unpacking and displaying their autumnal purchases. The Milliners and Mantua makers are eloquent in "floods of hats," and "lusciously dresses." Papas, of course, look green, and mothers profoundly study each new effect.

By the way, we understand that on Friday of last week, the lady Principal of a flourishing female school in the East end of the county, delivered for her pupils a telling lecture on the subject of "pin backs."—On Monday morning, while waiting for the train, we had the pleasure of seeing near a hundred pupils assemble at the Louisville—and a pin back there. The sight was refreshing, encouraging, and as we beheld the smiling Principal receiving each new accession at the door, we found ourselves unconsciously singing— "Let the good Angels come in."

MR. BEN HOFFMAN, formerly of your place, and late of Cincinnati, died on Sunday, at the home of his brother-in-law, J. W. Hucker. He was buried in the Cemetery Monday afternoon. Mr. H. was long an invalid. This young wife was supported through the trying ceremony by a large assembly of relatives and friends.

WE learn that the store house, with all its contents, of Mr. Wm. Spraggins, on the Rolling Fork, in Casey county, was burned on Saturday night. Loss total—said to be about $4,000—no insurance.

FALFALE.

GARRARD COUNTY NEWS.

Lancaster.

WE are glad to note the return of our friend Mat Walton, who after an absence of three weeks has returned to his field of labor.

THE protracted meeting at the Christian church, conducted by Rev. A. A. Garo, is drawing large crowds, and there has been several additions up to this time. The meeting is held only at night, and will be continued through this week.

A LARGE rattlesnake with ten rattles and a button, was killed by some boys on the Oak Orchard pike about two miles from town about a week ago. His skinship was undoubtedly a wayfarer from home, as it is something remarkable for one to be found so close to Lancaster.

ON Monday evening at 10 o'clock, the grocery in Madison county, Andy Conn shot and killed John Arnold. We have not heard the particulars of the killing.

THE residence in this county, near Lowell, Mrs. Ann Layton. The funeral was preached at the house and her remains brought and interred in the Lancaster Cemetery.

THE October term of our Circuit Court, especially for equity business, is now in session, and will continue through the week. The great case at Washington county vs. the Cumberland & Ohio Railroad will be argued, and probably some steps taken in it at this term. Messrs. G. K. McKee, Capt. Ed. Russell are here in the interest of Washington county, and Mr. Burr Harrison is representing the railroad. SPEED.
